
CHARITIES & NON-PROFIT ORGANISATIONS

We advise tax-privileged organisations of all types on the law applicable to non-profits. We strive to implement holistic concepts that take neighbouring areas of law into account, and provide our clients with long-term support.

Legal forms

Our clients include:

- Non-profit organisations
- Foundations
- Associations
- Federations
- Non-profit companies

Expertise

While our expertise is broad, our work focuses on the following areas:

- Advising on establishment
- Drafting and amending articles of association, taking into account the tax laws applicable to charities (§§ 51 et seq. Fiscal Code)
- Coordinating with tax authorities and/or foundation supervisory authorities
- Assessing and ensuring compliance with the criteria for non-profits
- Advising on restructuring
- Advising bodies and board members on ongoing activities
- Advising on all issues concerning dependent foundations and/or endowment funds

Requirements of tax-privileged organisations

We provide support to boards and board members of tax-privileged organisations on compliance with the special provisions that apply to such organisations, including in relation to the following areas:

- Non-profit law (§§ 51 et. seq. Fiscal Code)
- Law applicable to donations
- Fundraising, sponsoring and the procurement of funds
- Tax law
- Company law
- Labour and social security law
- Compliance, including data protection