
PUBLIC BUSINESS LAW

BEITEN BURKHARDT offers you comprehensive legal advice in all areas of business-related public law. We advise public sector bodies and private companies, as well as individuals, on these matters.

As we collaborate seamlessly in a network across our offices, we are quickly available to assist with both national and international matters. We focus on reaching time and resource saving solutions that form a substantial basis for the work of our clients.

BEITEN BURKHARDT supports public authorities with legal questions in connection with administrative procedures and projects of all kinds, such as the privatisation of public services. We advise business and private enterprises on all questions in connection with approval and other administrative procedures.

We advise and assist our clients in recognising and evaluating environmental risks. In close cooperation with technical experts, we develop solution methods and assist you with their implementation.

We possess deep expertise and experience in all aspects of public building and sectoral planning law in connection with real estate law, in particular regarding the realisation of infrastructural projects:

Reflecting its international approach, BEITEN BURKHARDT offers integrated advice on public law not only in its German offices but also internationally and across borders. Of course we provide advice on all public law issues on the spot at our own offices and partner law firms in the relevant countries.
