ADVANT Beiten Expands Corporate and M&A Practice in Frankfurt Office with Roy Naor

Frankfurt, 3 August 2023 – The international law firm ADVANT Beiten continues to expand its Corporate/M&A practice group by winning Roy Naor, LL.M. (New York), LL.B. for its Frankfurt office. Prior to joining ADVANT Beiten as Salary Partner in October, Roy Naor has worked for Deloitte Legal.

Roy Naor provides legal advice to national and international investors and corporations. His area of expertise ranges from incorporation of companies to joint venture agreements and M&A transactions. Roy Naor is admitted to practice law both in Germany and in New York. As a special focus of his work, he advises clients from the United States and Israel as they seek to expand their activities in the German market. His industry focus is on the sectors tech and mobility.

"We are pleased to have gained Roy Naor, an up-and-coming talent, for our law firm," comments Philipp Cotta, Managing Partner of ADVANT Beiten, adding: "The Corporate/M&A practice plays a central role in the strategy of our law firm, nationally and internationally. Also in view of our alliance, Roy Naor will be an immense asset. With his professional background, his network and long years of experience in advising clients in German, English and Hebrew, he is a perfect match for our firm, further advancing our internationalisation."

Roy Naor comments: "I am looking forward to the new challenge, and especially to working with Altana in France and Nctm in Italy. The US strategy initiated by all three firms is an excellent fit for my business model. I am looking forward to working nationally and internationally together with my colleagues."

This is the second year that the US publisher Best Lawyers lists Roy Naor among the 'Ones to Watch Germany'.

The Corporate/M&A practice group of ADVANT Beiten has 60 fee-earners across all locations, 19 of which are equity partners.
